DETAILED ACTION

Claims

1. Claims 25-35 are pending after entry of the preliminary amendment dated 10 March 2004.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 25-35 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

What does "thin" (in line 1 of claims 25, 28, 34 and 38) mean? Please clarify.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claims 25-26, 28 and 32-35 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Papendick et al (US 5,037,680).

Papendick teaches automotive components having a first outer layer that contains 0.1 to 5% UV stabilizer (col. 7, lines 3-8) and inner second layer that contains 0.1 to 0.6 UV stabilizer (col. 5, lines 41-62). When the component is a bumper, as shown in Figure 1, it concealed from the passengers' view.

At col. 4, lines 31-61, it teaches that resin blends and resin/filler combinations can be used in the outer resin layer and that fillers in that layer can be UV stabilizers.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

8. Claims 27 and 29-31 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Papendick.

Papendick is discussed above. It fails to teach that the inner layer contains formulations comprising combinations of different resins and fillers.

In the absence of convincing objective evidence to the contrary, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time that the invention was made to employ blends of resins and fillers as components of the second inner layers of Papendick in order to achieve various pigmentation and stabilization effects.

Art Unit: 1772

Citation as of Interest

9. Crass et al (US 4,692,837) is cited as of interest for teaching multilayer films in which the outer layer contains 3 to 10 times more stabilizer than the inner layer does.
